

6-28-20 The Waves are Calm

The waves are calm, very, very calm

The waves are calm, very, very calm

The waves are calm, very, very calm

Sit next to these waves, you see

These waves are calm inside of Me

Lay right here and you will see

The great horizon that comes over thee

The waves are calm, the waves are calm, you see

The waves will not overtake thee

Ride on the waves and do not see

Do not look to where it will take thee

Just ride peacefully, peacefully I say this day

Ride on the waves in every way

Ride, ride, ride, you see

The calmness is inside of Me

Ride I say in every way

I will carry you places deep, deep inside of Me this very day

Do not ask any questions, you see

Lay back and trust and rest in Me

No more questions I say this day

Either you will trust Me, or go your own way

Lay your hands back and begin to see

How freely, freely I will take thee

Lay your hands back inside of Me

The shores are calm, the waves are calm

Everything is calm, you see
No worries, no worries, no worries in Me
Come, come, come this day
Lay your head back and rest it every way
Cease from your works, your works this day
Cease to work and work and work and play
Come, come, come this day
Lay your head back, the waves are calm
The waves are calm
You will not slack anything, you see
Because I am the one that takes care of thee
Why do you worry, worry, worry is not Me
Do you not see what is inside of Me
Peace and rest and calm, you see
I will give you the very best inside of Me

Oh you will not have to row in that boat, you see
I did not tell you to get in the boat
I told you to stand in the sea, rest in Me
Nothing, nothing, nothing, you see
Nothing from Earth will be able to help thee
But if you will come and be with Me
You will see the calmness inside of Me
